FAMILY REUNION.

Characteristics of Some of Abbeville's

First Settlers.

Washington, D. C., June 23, 1909. Editors Press and Banner: In the Press and Banner of this week I notice the item which tells of two brothers meeting, after 43 years, at the home of their sister, Mrs. Susan J. Britt (nee Bouchillon), of Sandover. have to-day a letter from one of them (Thaddeus W. Bouchillon) telling of the reunion which was had of the six remaining children of the late Joseph Leonard Bouchillon at the old home at Bordeaux, where Henry M. Bouchillon, one of the six, now lives.

He says in the letter:
"We had the privilege on the 14th of assembling at the old homestead, the place of our birth where all were reared, and discussing child and girl and boyhood days while we pointed out the old familiar objects which still remained—the old familiar stones, the among the people. The cases in the Mayor's court decreased from 1440 under the dispensary to 634 under prohibition; the cases of drunkenness, from bition; the cases of drunkenness, from Mayor Sherard surely has grounds for saying: "Prohibition is working successfully in Anderson. It is bringing about a moral uplift among many people."

Why should we not enjoy these desirable results in Abbeville county?

J. S. Moffatt,

Bring from Mayor Sherard's Letter in Prohibitionist. Now, Governor, I wish to say that I am not in favor of state of the describe. I wish to say that I am not in favor of state of the describe. I wish to say that I am not in favor of state of the describe. I wish to say that I am not in favor of state of the dustrial store house, the bubbling spring pouring forth its water second to none, the sloping hills and depressions over which we roved and played during our childhood. During the noon hours, we, with others of our kinsfolk, partook of a sumptuous repast prepared by the wife of our brother Henry; and, before we parted for the day, we assembled in the room, the six of weak has happened by what is generally known as blind tigers, or so-called prohibitionist. Now, Governor, I wish to say that I am not in favor of the state of the sumption of

"Nearer, my God, to Thee."
"This meeting of old brothers and sisters I am not able to describe. I had not seen Benjamin for 43 years; will leave next week for my home in Mississippi."

It is remarkable—the vitality, the long life and the large families which ran with so much of the old Huguenot blood that settled at Bordeaux and from there spread to other parts of the country. Golden weddings which speak of a happy home-life, were numerous among that people.

Joseph Leonard Bouchillon, whose any wind golden beyone the part and the country of the country of surviving children have just met each other again at the old Bordeaux homestead, was one of three brothers, each of whom reared a large family and rejoiced for more than fifty years with the wife of his youth. John Bouchil-ion and his wife, who went West and are buried in Texas, lived together over 51 years; James Segang Bouchil-ion and his wife, who also went West and are buried in Mississippi, lived together over 57 years. Joseph Leonard Bouchillon and his wife lived together at Bordeaux over 52 years.

Isaac Bouchillon, a first cousin to the three brothers above named, married a Guillebeau with whom he lived for more than 53 years. They are bur-ied in Floyd county, Georgia, where one of their children is still living at 83 years of age, honored and loved by her descendants of three generations. Mrs. Susan J. Britt, mentioned above, and her husband, the late Joseph S. hanni than 55 years (to be exact, 55 years, 6 months and 18 days) and were the parents of seven children, all of whom are still living. The lady who was honored at Montgomery, Alabama, as the oldest and most cherished survival of the early days of the town, and who in December last died at 96 years of age, retaining all, her faculties to her last day (Mrs. Lucinda Susan Foun-taine), was of this Huguenot strain, transported when a little playful girl from South Carolina to Alabama. She was of the Covin-LeRoy blood

In the matter of revenue, Mayor Sherard shows that the loss was,$14,470, as over against the $100,000 saved to the peop'e. Where then is the loss? he asks.

As to violations, the Mayor frankly admits there are violations of the law, as there are violations of every other law on the statute books, but affirms that it is not difficult to secure a conviction, where there is evidence.

The foregoing are only a few extracts from Mayor Sherard's public letter.

The foregoing are only a few extracts from Mayor Sherard's public letter. The document is filled with the most important and encouraging' information to prohibitionists, and it would be well for the men who are leading the fight in the wet counties to write to Mr. Sherard for a copy of it, and have it published in the counties.

It has been shown over and over again that the stock arguments against against a begin that the stock arguments against prohibition are fallacious. Blind-tigerism is a disease of the liquorites and is a bogy, a scarecrow, held before the rimid, to say nothing of the serious indictions of the prohibitory law:

A vote for prohibitory law:

A vote for prohibition is a vote for good morals, anyway.
